

Benton Kentucky Kiwanis

Greetings Cookers!

The Benton Kiwanis Club is pleased to invite you and your team to be a part of the Benton Kiwanis Barbeque Kookoff, the newest event in the long-standing Tater Day Festival.

The Kookoff will be held in Benton, KY on the grounds of the Benton Water Treatment Facility on April 1st & 2nd, 2011. This prime location offers plenty of space for competitors and vendors, and is along the route for the Tater Day Parade, which is regularly attended by thousands of spectators.

Teams will be permitted to check in and set up starting on Thursday, March 31st. The Kookoff will be judged on Saturday, April 2nd in the manner dictated by the Kansas City Barbeque Society. Vendors will be selling Friday, Saturday, Sunday, & Monday.

Please review the enclosed materials concerning the Benton Kiwanis Barbeque Kookoff, and contact me with any questions that you may have. I expect his event to be highly successful, and sincerely hope that you will be a part of this wonderful endeavor.

Thank you,

Ed Jones
